7 SHIKEB SADDOZAI

Case No.C-18-05558 BLF(PR)

8 Plaintiff,

MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT

9 V.

OF COUNSEL

10 CLAWSON

11 Defendants.
12
13
14

15 Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915 (e)(1) Plaintiff Shikeb Saddozai
16 moves for an order appointing counsel to represent him in this 17 case. In support of this motion, Plaintiff states;

- 18 1. Plaintiff is unable to afford counsel, and has requested 19 leave to proceed IN FORMA PAUPERIS , and as a result of 20 being indigent, plaintiff has been granted appointment of counsel by the:
21 FIRST APPELLATE DISTRICT , on criminal matter.
see attached Exhibit: A.
- 22 2. The issues in the case are complex, because it contains 23 several different legal claims, with each claim invol-24 ving a different set of defendants, all related to each other, arising out of the same transaction ,
25 occurrence , or series of transactions or occurrences.
Fed R.Civ.P 20(a)(2)
26
27

- 1 3. The plaintiff has no legal knowledge of the law, with 2 only a high school education, not competent to try the 3 case, with physical and mental disability that would
4 make it difficult for plaintiff to present case,
5 which an attorney can make a difference in the outcome
6 of case.
7 see attached Exhibit: B.
- 8 4. The plaintiff has limited or no access to facility
9 law library photocopying, notarizing, legal reference
10 materials, nor ability to print from legal reference
11 materials or electronic copies from the LEXIS NEXIS
12 SYSTEM, nor is librarian trained in the field of law,
13 and has repeatedly denied legal book check-outs, and 14 threatened filing false disciplinary action from 15 seeking assistance from other inmates, and refused
16 allowing me to making copies of my complaints filed in 17 support of my claims, in addition to library cancelations.
18 see attached Exhibit: C.
- 19 5. The plaintiff wrote letters to the following attorney's 20 and or legal organizations:
21 John E. Hill , Joseph Saei , R. Michael Flynn, ACLU,
22 asking them to handle this case and plaintiff's letters
23 requesting representation have been rejected.
24 see attached Exhibit: D.
- 25 6. The case requires investigation that plaintiff will not 26 be able to do because of his imprisonment preventing his 27 ability to litigate, such as obtaining the following:
discovery of documents, medical records, jail/prison incident reports that plaintiff is not allowed to have, identity of witnesses and defendants, interviewing other witnesses that were victims of abuse and mistreatment, prior history of officers, as well as preparation beyond the ability of a In Pro Se prisoner.
7. The plaintiff and or witnesses have been transferred and or released where events last occurred described in plaintiffs complaint that know the facts, that need to be proved, and due to the changed circumstances.
8. There will be credibility issues strongly expected to be disputed which will require an attorney to conduct cross-examination that will involve conflicting testimony, and

1 counsel would better enable plaintiff to present evidence
2 by virtue of experience and not of being locked up in 3 plaintiffs custody.

- 4 9. Expert testimony will be needed which involves technical,
5 medical, and mental health issues and requiring process
6 serving on multiple defendants and witnesses, that will
7 require depositions, some who are supervisory officials,
8 presenting complex legal issues of determining which 9 defendants were sufficiently personally involved in the 10 Constitutional violations to be held liable.
- 11 10. Plaintiff's case has merit and the aforementioned factors 12 have been met.
- 13 11. Plaintiff has intentionally had his legal materials
14 confiscated and destroyed and legal correspondence taken
15 and reviewed outside his presence or consent by defendants
16 to prevent plaintiff from initiating civil action, obstruct
17 access to the courts, seek help, expose misconduct, includ-
18 ing denied delivery via U.S. postal of legal reference 19 materials.
- 20 12. The plaintiff has demanded a jury trial, which requires 21 much greater legal skills than the plaintiff has or can
22 develop such as the totality of the conditions, state
23 of mind, issues of deliberate indifference, defense of 24 qualified immunity, the Constitutionality of a federal
25 statute, questions of the extent of prisoners rights
26 under the federal disability statutes, and determining 27 whether a prison regulation violates the
Turner v. Safley, "reasonable relationship" standard.
13. Should the courts deny plaintiff's, MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT
OF COUNSEL, plaintiff request the courts to provide a brief recital as to why the motion should not be granted.
Allen v. Thomas, 388 F.3d 147,150(5th Cir.2004);
Howland v. Kilquist, 833 F.2d 639,646(7th Cir.1987)

WHEREFORE, this Honorable Court should appoint counsel to represent the plaintiff in this case.

Dear Shikeb Saddozai:

Thank you for contacting the ACLU concerning bringing a civil lawsuit regarding your incarceration.

Due to severely limited resources, the ACLU is unable to provide you with legal representation. If you are seeking to file a lawsuit to recover money damages for your injuries, you may wish to contact L.A. Police Watch at 3435 Wilshire Blvd., Suite 2900, Los Angeles, CA 90010-2015. Or you may wish to contact the local bar association in the area in which the abuse occurred for a referral to a private attorney.

We regret we are unable to assist you with your legal issue.

Dear Mr. Saddozai:

Thank you for contacting my office again, recently. I am sorry to hear about your matter. As I stated in my letter dated 3/16/18, I am writing to confirm to you that I cannot take your case. Please be advised that I will not be representing you or taking any action on your behalf. Your documents

Please understand that we have not investigated your case and are expressing no opinion as to its merits or the likelihood you will prevail. Rather, we are informing you that we are unable to take your case. My decision is not meant to reflect on the merits of your matter and is not intended to discourage you from pursuing the matter.

I strongly recommend that you consult with another attorney about this matter, without delay. There are various statutes of limitations imposing time deadlines and other requirements on the commencement of suits. Multiple statutes of limitations could apply. Some limitation periods are as short as six-months from the date of the injury-causing event. Such time limits usually apply to state law claims against public entities and their employees such as police departments, the State, cities, counties, schools, county hospitals, libraries, fire departments, and other government entities. Other limitation periods can be as short as one year and other limitation periods are two years. There are other limitation periods that also can apply. You need to seek legal counsel immediately to identify and calculate the applicable statutes of limitations so that you preserve your right to sue. Failure to comply with the applicable statute(s) of limitations could forever bar you from pursuing your case or could bar certain claims. Again, there are certain rigid time restrictions that must be met in prosecuting your case or your rights might be forever lost. Therefore, if you intend to pursue this matter, it is imperative that you not delay in moving the case forward. Contact another attorney right away.

Again, I will not be representing you in this matter and will not be taking action on your behalf. We wish you the best of luck in the future. Thank you for contacting my office.

Kind Regards,
